

Guest Speaker

Dave Johnson

Has been the Senior Pastor at Open Door since 1980. During his ministry tenure, the church has grown from a congregation of 160 to 3,000 regular attendees.

Making the Word come alive, he takes an expository approach to teaching uniting biblical truth with relevant issues in a clear and exciting way.

He co-authored the Subtle Power of Spiritual Abuse, and wrote Joy Comes in the Mourning. David graduated from Bethel College in St. Paul, Minnesota with a B.A. in psychology. He went on to receive further theological training at both Bethel Seminary and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Women's Ministry Conference

Beauty for Ashes Women's Conference

Dave Johnson writes, "When Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount, as recorded in Matthew 5, He seemed to turn everything upside down.... Can it really be that... Blessed are the broken? Happy are the sad? Satisfied are the hungry?"

Jesus deliberately turns everything upside down... as Tony Campola observes, it is as if Jesus walks into the display window that is life and switches all the price tags on the merchandise.... 'the things you thought had value don't have value and the things you cared about the most you should care about the least, and the things you were striving for are not worth striving for....'

The dynamic truth of Matthew 5 is this: "The kingdom of God was designed for broken people, it's for people that know they can't do it themselves. Blessed are the broken."
